

I have been a subscriber to XM Satellite Radio for over three months. They provide an invaluable service that I can not find on local radio stations. I travel throughout the country on business and find thier weather and traffic reports extremely informative. Because a majority of the channels are commercial free, I receive timely/accurate reports. Unlike most local stations that only report traffic every 15 minutes. This service most not be taken away from XM Radio.